FOOTBALL SQUADS WORKOUT TOGETHER

BOTH SQUADS DEVELOPING MANY NEW PROSPECTS

NUMEROUS SPECTATORS

S. T. C. Has Three Full Squads—First Game With Peru To Be Played Next Week

The College gridiron is an interesting sight on evenings after school. At one end of the field L. E. Ziegler is drilling his Spoofhounds in the art of football and at the other end of the field Coach Frank Lawrence is drilling his crew of Bearcats. Soon afterwards the high school bunch are divided into squads for signal practice. The College crew has three squads on the field calling signals making five active squads.

Both of the teams have shown considerable advancement since the first day of school and are gradually being molded into perfect football machines.

The Spoofhounds are developing several new backfield men and a new tackle and end. The rest of the positions are filled by old and experienced men. The interference the men on the team are showing is unusual for a high school squad and deserves credit.

Coach Lawrence is in a peculiar position. He has so many good men that he has to have three squads in action at the same time. The workouts are fast and snappy and plenty of pep is being shown.

For the past week the crew has been practicing signals. For the last fifteen minutes of workouts a scrimmage usually takes place. O'Banion, and Masters are developing into two good backfield men. O'Banions toe is a great help to the Bear cats in addition to his plunging and line bucking. Foreman and Wilson have undisputed claim to their positions at halfback and full back. Both are as fast as ever and have the football experience. The quarterback has several aspirants. Eads of Trenton and Mowery from Guyman, Okla., are the best bets. Pittman from Guyman is also a good backfield man and will be a probable member of the squad for the year. He is a big man and can kick a good average.

Crane and Kirby are strong contenders for the center positions. Crane is an expert on defense and in scrimmage accounted for numerous of the opposing teams setbacks. Guards have several old letter men trying out for the position again. Hayes, England, Akars, Palmer and Hartman, a Maryville High School candidate are all good men. Richards, Graham and Goforth of Barnard play good at tackle. Richards is a very fast man for his size and is hard to stop on the offense.

For the end positions Thompson, Akars, Allen, Culp and Fowler of Guyman are likely candidates. All are big, fast and sure tackles.

The Bear Cat prospects are good, in fact better than for many years yet Coach Lawrence says he will make no prophecies but would rather deliver the goods and then prophesy.

The first game is next week with Peru, Neb. There will not be any squad picked for the trip and as many men will be taken as there are cars available. The game will be a test for the newly constructed team and will serve to point out the week points, if there are any, in time to be corrected before a conference game is played.

NEED MORE FUNDS FOR MAINTENANCE

ONLY TWO MILLION OF HIGHWAY BONDS CAN BE SOLD IN 1923

LAW ALLOWS 10 MILLION

However, This Amount Cannot Be Disposed Of This Year—Makes No Recommendations

Jefferson City, Sept. 20—The State Highway Commission, at an adjourned session here today, made public a communication it has sent to Governor Hyde, in which it is declared that if the entire state highway system be adequately maintained it is doubtful whether more than $2,000,000 in state road bonds can be issued in 1924. The law contemplated $10,000,000 for that year.

The Commission insists that a new source of revenue must be provided for maintenance, although it makes no recommendations as to ways and means.

With adequate revenue for maintenance, derived from a source that will permit sufficient funds for interest, the Commission argues that the balance of the $60,000,000 state road bonds proceeds can be expended by 1927, with 90 per cent of the primary roads made all-weather roads. The Commission says the secondary roads would be advanced in accordance with the law, but reiterates its report of last December, in which it estimated that the total costs of the designated secondary roads in the 114 counties would approximate $108,000,000 less savings from mass purchases of materials and savings in costs, while only $31,000,000 of state bond money plus Federal Aid was made available for the purpose.

LEGISLATURE WILL MEET WEDNESDAY

GOVERNOR WALTON TO FACE IMPEACHMENT TRIAL.

EXECUTIVE IS RESOLUTE

"I Do Not Propose to Permit This Assembly," He Tells International News Today.

Oklahoma City, Sept. 20—"We are not afraid and will continue to 'play ball' waiting to meet the emergencies as they arise," said W. D. McBee, one of the directors of the call o fthe legislature, this afternoon.

"The bristling of arms, mobilizing of troops and other exhibitions of force will fortify us all the stronger in the opinion of the people, for it is these very things that we are fighting.

"We have not condemned Governor Walton. He will be tried fairly and impartially, and upon the evidence only will he be acquited or convicted. We merely demand constitutional government. We are peacable citizens, intent upon official business which we have every legal and moral right to transact, and this we will do. We will meet in the state capitol."

63 Solons To Meet

At 11:30 o'clock this morning, sixty-three legislators had signified their intention to attend the sesison next Wednesday. Other consents from members of the legislative body were coming in by telephone and others were being solicited.

Oklahoma City, Sept. 20—The House committee directly the call for the Oklahoma legislatoure went on record today as opposing the wearing of masks, the gathering of masked assemblies and floggings.

In order that no question concerning the illegality of masked bands might arise, the committee urged enactment of a law prohibiting them.

The committee recommended an investigation of charges of derelictions of various county officers and their administration of law.

Oklahoma City, Sept. 20.—Governor J. C. Walton, in an exclusive interview today with the International News, declared that additional troops are being mobilized to prevent any treasonable assembly of the Oklahoma legislature.

The Governor asserted that he would "brook" no interference in his plan to clean out the Klan.

The interview was granted late this morning after the Governor had just risen. He had been up until late after midnight holding conferences with his lieutenants and political advisors.

"I do not want to say how many more troops will be mobilized," Governor Walton said, "but we will have more troops on duty in Oklahoma—you can say that."

Puffing on his corncob pipe, and striding up and down his study, the picturesque six-foot executive stopped abruptly and commanded the reporter to take this:

Extra Troops Mobilized

"Under our constitution, it is unlawful for our legislature to assemble in extraordinary session, without the consent of the Governor, and it is through the Klan leaders and members, such as W. D. McBee and Allen Street to hamper and oppose me in my present movement to clean up the many crimes the Klan committed in this state. Extra troops are now being mobilized here and I do not propose to permit this assembly."

The Governor expressed himself as pleased with the comment he is receiving outside of Oklahoma.

"The press of Oklahoma, for political reasons, is attacking me for all of my official acts—particularly my stand against the Klan—but the editors in other parts of the country outside of Oklahoma realize the justice of my fight."

Oklahoma City, Sept. 20—The majority of the members of the lower house of the state legislature will meet here next Wednesday to consider charges of misconduct in office against Governor Jack Walton, under a call issued today by Representative W. H. McBee of Duncan.

Simultaneous with the announcement of the call, McBee claimed to have the support of sixty-one members of the House, which is seven more than a constitutional majority necessary to impeach.

Says He Is Spending Thousands of Dollars in Effort to Harm Her Reputation.

"I am a defenseless woman," she said, "fighting alone against a crafty man with millions behind him."

CHILDREN'S WEEK WILL BE OBSERVED

LEADERS ARE NAMED

"The Race Moves Forward On the Feet Of Little Children" Is Selected As Slogan

Children's Week will be observed in Nodaway County during the week of October 14 to 21.

During this time, plans will be made for promoting greater effort and interest in the teaching of the Bible to children. It is to be observed throughout the United States and Canada in communities and local churches.

The Children's Division workers of the Nodaway County Council of Religious Education are very anxious to have every church in the county take part in this observance by having special sermons, song festivals, children's parties, story hours for the children after school, and parents meetings.

Last year there were observances in every district but one, and that one is making plans now.

It is stated that in the United States, more than thirteen million of the twenty-five million children are not receiving any religious instruction.

Mrs. Maud Junkin Baldwin, International Children's Division Superintendent of the International Council of Religious Education, has chosen this as a slogan for this week: "The race moves forward on the feet of little children."

Today Is Yom Kippur, Jewish Atonement Day

Yom Kippur, the holiest of Hebrew holidays and the Day of Atonement, started at sunset last night and continues until sunset tonight. Stores and shops of Jewish merchants close on this day. Locally Joe Cohn has closed his place of business.

Modern Judaism proclaims it a day when all shall repent spiritually and find forgiveness for their sins, not in blood sacrifices, but in repentance. According to Jewish faith the "Book of Life," in which is written the fate of each individual, is opened by God on the Jewish New Year's day, which is ten days preceding Yom Kippur. During the ten days the Creator inscribes a judgment for each person. The Jewish faith decrees that by prayer, penitence and charity during that period evil judgments may be averted. No food or water is supposed to be taken by Jews from the beginning of the Day of Atonement until it ends. Fasting is considered necessary to show religious devotion.

RIGHTEOUSNESS BRINGS PEACE.—The work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness, quietness and assurance forever. And my people shall dwell in a peaceable habitation, and in sure dwellings, and in quiet resting places. Isa. 32: 17, 18.

New Primary Laws Prod Candidates

In Score Of States They Must Announce Long Before Presidential Convention

Washington, Sept. 20—The presidential primary, now the vogue in a score of states, is doing away with the time-honored practice of delaying announcements of candidacies until the last possible moment. In many states, candidates must climb down from the fence many weeks before the national conventions, and say whether they will or won't.

The beginning of the 1924 primary season is only six months away, and the filing of papers requires of candidates in many cases already has become a burning question among those who cannot decide whether they hear a popular call for their services in public office. Such decisions must be made much earlier than in the past, and as a consequence of the spread of the primary system the next few weeks are expected to see the crop of candidates reach a stage much more advanced than the average for pre-presidential years.

The first primary, that in New Hampshire, will be held March 11 North Dakota will follow a week later, and seven additional states, controlling some of the largest delegations in national conventions, will have voted before the end of April. Here is the full list of those having presidential primary laws, with the dates for the primary elections of all parties:

California, Tuesday, May 6.
Florida, Tuesday, June 3.
Georgia, To be fixed by state committees.
Illinois, Tuesday, April 8.
Indiana, Tuesday, May 6.
Maryland, Monday, May 5.
Massachusetts, Tuesday, April 29.
Michigan, Monday, April 7.
Montana, Tuesday, May 27.
Nebraska, Tuesday, April 15.
New Jersey, Tuesday, April 22.
New Hampshire, Tuesday, March 11
North Carolina, Saturday, June 7.
North Dakota, Tuesday, March 18.
Ohio, Tuesday, April 29.
Oregon, Friday, May 18.
Pennsylvania, Tuesday, April 22.
South Dakota, Tuesday, May 27.
West Virginia, Tuesday, May 27.
Wisconsin, Tuesday, April 1.

The presidential primary law of Florida does not apply to a party polling less than 35 per cent of the total vote in the previous general election. This eliminates the Republican party from a presidential primary and leaves its delegates to be chosen by convention in that state.

A friend asked our neighbor if her husband ever swore and she replied she did not know as she was never around when he changed a tire.

The automobile may be superior to the horse but it will never supplant horse racing as a popular sport.

Among the things the average man is looking forward to without pleasure is the next quarterly installment of the income tax.

Have you ever noticed that the wise guy is often the first to get stung?

How many letters did you ever get which were marked "personal" or "confidential," that amounted to much?

One of those "Do you remember friends" of the column writes to ask how many remember when the merry-go-rounds were propelled by a horse running on a tread mill.

Louise, the stenographer, says it is never wise to judge a person's past by what he tells you about it.

Now that the colleges of the country are about to open many a father will commence to work his son's way through school.

A cynical bachelor says it often happens that when a girl turns down a young man he feels he can't live without, but the fact of the case is if he had won her he could not have lived with her.

A reader of the column sends this story as one of the funniest things brought to his attention in some time. A new kitten adopted an old tom cat in the neighborhood for a mother. Tom, however, was equal to the situation and while the kitten hunted for his supper he washed the little rascal.

You can't always tell a man's business by his appearance. Often a shoe dealer will wear run over shoes, a tailor will wear sloppy clothes and a diamond salesman will not sport a single stone.

When a woman can't think of anything else mean to say of another woman, she will remark that she buys her hats at a clearance sale.

Vagrant Musings

A lot of us are not content with being treated well, we want to be treated often.

Food for thought seldom tastes good.

The reason a lot of us are never happy is because we are too selfish.

Interesting Debates in College Classes

Public Speaking Classes Have Debates Every Week On National Questions

Some very interesting work is being done in the public speaking classes under the direction of Harry A. Miller. On account of the crowded conditions, the classes are divided into groups. On one day one group takes charge of the recitation and the next day alternates with another group.

Debates are given about once a week on some public question. Yesterday the League of Nations was argued. The students themselves take charge of the class room during a debate and appoint their judges and chairman. Parliamentary order is observed through out the period.

A class in debate is also scheduled. The class is interested in debates on public questions and will enter the debating contests held for chosing the College representatives in inter collegiate debates.

Urge Early Selection of Corn for Seed Use

Corn In Immature Condition and Situation Will Be Acute If Early Freeze

"Pick your seed corn now," is the warning given by W. W. Stanfield, of College agriculture department Mr. Stanfield said that the College class in farm work had made a trip to the College farm for the purpose of gathering statistics on the corn crop. It was found that only about a sixth of the corn had hardened the rest being immature and unfit for seed corn.

A severe freeze would make the corn situation very acute although there would probably be enough for seed purposes. Mr. Stanfield said that he accounted for the immature condition of the corn on account of the exceedingly cool weather accompanied by the continuous rains. He also added that this condition was general all over the county. However, on thin fields the corn is more mature but on the fertile fields the corn has not stopped growing and so is still green and soft.

In addition to this fact Mr. Stanfield urges the picking of large ears of hard corn for seed purposes at this time of year because by this selective method early corn is secured which greatly benefits the farmer.

The class was also interested in the per cent of stand of the corn and the yield per acre. The field was divided into sections and the stand counted. By this method an estimate was made by the students of the yield to be expected.

Last week the class made a field trip to the West Lawn farm of C. D. Bellows. The class at that time was interested in the baby beef which Mr. Bellows is feeding.

Late Telegraph News

St. Louis, Sept. 20—The annual joint meeting of the American Fisheries Society and the International Association of Game, Fish and Conservation commissioners opened here yesterday. The two organizations will be in session five days, the first three being taken up by deliberations of the Fisheries Society and the remainder by the other association.

The purpose of the fisheries organization is to promote the cause of fish culture; to gather and diffuse information bearing upon its practical success and upon all matters relating to fisheries; to unite and encourage all interests of fish culture and fisheries and to treat all questions of a scientific and economic character concerning fish.

The society was organized in 1870, this being the 53rd annual celebration. Yearly it has made wonderful progress in delving into and solving many of the mysteries of fish nature and it has long been recognized as the highest authority on piscatorial matters.

Kansas City, Sept. 20—Where once stood the capital of the great island empire, Tokio, will rise like the fabled Phoenix, a newer, cleaner and more modern city, Dr. Tsuyoshi Tamura, Japanese director of forestry, who is here to confer with park commissioners, believes.

"Five years from now will see Tokio completely restored," said Tamura. "But it will see a different Tokio. The streets will be straight and wider. The buildings will be of concrete and steel. There also will be many apartment houses, as the Japanese is a great space economizer.

"The American apartment house will meet his approval because it permits a maximum of comforts and conveniences in a minimum amount of space."

Tamura left Japan five months ago on an eighteen months' tour of America and Europe to study park systems with the view of Americanizing those in Japan. He has not heard whether his wife was killed but said she had gone to the mountains for a vacation. Very little damage was reported from that section.

St. Louis, Sept. 20—Immigration of foreigners into Missouri during the last fiscal year totalled 3,735, according to figures received by the St. Louis division, immigration service, Department of Labor.

This represents a gain of 961 over the previous year but is lower than during the fiscal years 1921-22 when 5,258 foreigners entered the state.

Official records show that during the last 12 years Missouri's largest increase was during the fiscal year ending June 30, 1914, when 13,781 aliens came to Missouri to live.

States which added more immigrants than Missouri to their populations during the last fiscal year are: New York, Illinois, California, Texas, Iowa, Arizona, Connecticut, Florida, Indiana, Maine, Minnesota, New Hampshire, New Jersey, Ohio, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Washington and Wisconsin.

Immigration into the United States during the year was 522,919, as compared with 356,995, the year before. Germans immigrants topped the list, with Mexicans, second, and English, third.

Seligman, Mo., Sept. 20—Digging for lead and zinc near here, T. R. Gilliam, discovered a deposit of gold which, according to government experts, is valued at $1,000,000.

Chemists who have been called in to assay the rock formation, laughed at Gilliam's claim that it contained gold, but later government experts investigated and found it contained 1 per cent gold.

Gilliam experimented with various chemicals and at last found a formula that separated the precious metal from the ore so it could be made marketable. The rock produces $80 in gold to the ton, and a soft brown clay that is mixed through the rock assays 40 per cent gold and 46 per cent silver to the ton.

Wichita, Kan., Sept. 20—"Prince" Michael Alexander Oblensky Dmitri, who admits he's of the late house of Russia, the Romanoff dynasty, shook the dust of Kansas from his royally worn shoes and started back for Europe.

Dmitri said he'd go to England where he could live accepted in his true worth and place in society.

Wichita after a period doubt had accepted Dmitri as a bona fide prince until the arrival of information from Scotland Yards, famous British Police headquarters, alleging Dmitri's record was that of a criminal.

Confronted with the record and photographs of himself taken from a London "rogue's gallery," Dmitri still insisted he was the son of Alexander III of Russia by a morganic marriage.

Fort Worth, Tex., Sept. 20—All boys cannot be as "lucky" as Leanord Doyle, confessed 18-year-old burglar, according to the embryo bandit, himself.

Leonard was sentenced to two years in the penitentiary by a jury which then rescinded its verdict, and gave him $7.50 in cash and it's good wishes.

Doyle pleaded guilty to breaking into a grocery store, stole some barbecue and fruits, he said, because he was hungry. The jury raised the money so he could start back to his home in Pittsburg, Pa., where his mother and an invalid sister live.

Assistant County Attorneys Mastin and Tolbert indorsed the jury's verdict and contributed to the fund given the boy.

Oklahoma City, Sept. 20—A free normal life, so long as it is not immoral, unconstitutional or uncivic, should be given all teachers in public schools. Dr. Arthur D. Dean recently told the local federation of mothers clubs.

"If the men in your clubs smoke give the teachers that privilege; if the women wear short sleeves, earrings, silk hose and jewels, who shall gainsay the teacher following suit?"

The public also was scored by Dr. Dean for criticizing the newspapers. He deplored the fact that few persons were enough interested in school news to do more than scan it, while searching for a more sensational story. This tendency, he said, is due partially to the fact that no man of letters has yet appeared to give school information the human element.

"When the public reaches the stage where it prefers school news to a sensational murder, the newspapers will respond solidly and immediately. They are trying to furnish what they knew the reader wants to read," Dr. Dean declared.

The audience also was urged to see that its children passed normally through the four stages in the love life of a human being predicting that ill health would follow if they did not respond.

TO ALL THE WOMEN FOLKS—

DEAR MADAM:

May I ask you to drop into our store to see something that I know you will be greatly interested in—a range that actually saves at least one-third fuel.

It is a patented article, a modern discovery, made by a scientific gentleman who is a heat engineer. With his discovery he has completely revolutionized the range industry and yet his discovery can be used in only the one range—that's the MASCOT. The patented principle is fully protected.

By his new discovery the heat goes ALL around the oven and on both sides of the water-back. Heretofore the heat went to one side of the water-back and not all the way around the oven.

This modern MASCOT RANGE costs no more than any other well-built, convenient range so that you get this fuel saving feature at no extra cost. And yet this saving in fuel will pay for the whole range many times over during the life of the range.

But what interests you, too, is good baking. Because the heat goes ALL around the oven, biscuits and bread bake evenly on all sides without any shifting of pans. Then, too, the hot water heats much more quickly.

As a house-keeper you'll quickly see and understand the new principle and realize the reason for the phenomenal demand for this range. Like most ladies you'll figure what's the use of having one of the other kind when the MASCOT will cost so much less in the long run and will do so much better work.

Come in and let us show you this MASCOT. No need to buy until you're ready, but we do feel that you're one of the ladies who will appreciate knowing all about anything that tends to simplify and improve conditions in the home. We shall be glad to see you at any time.

Yours sincerely,

GEISS & RICHARDS,

South Side Hardware, Maryville, Mo.

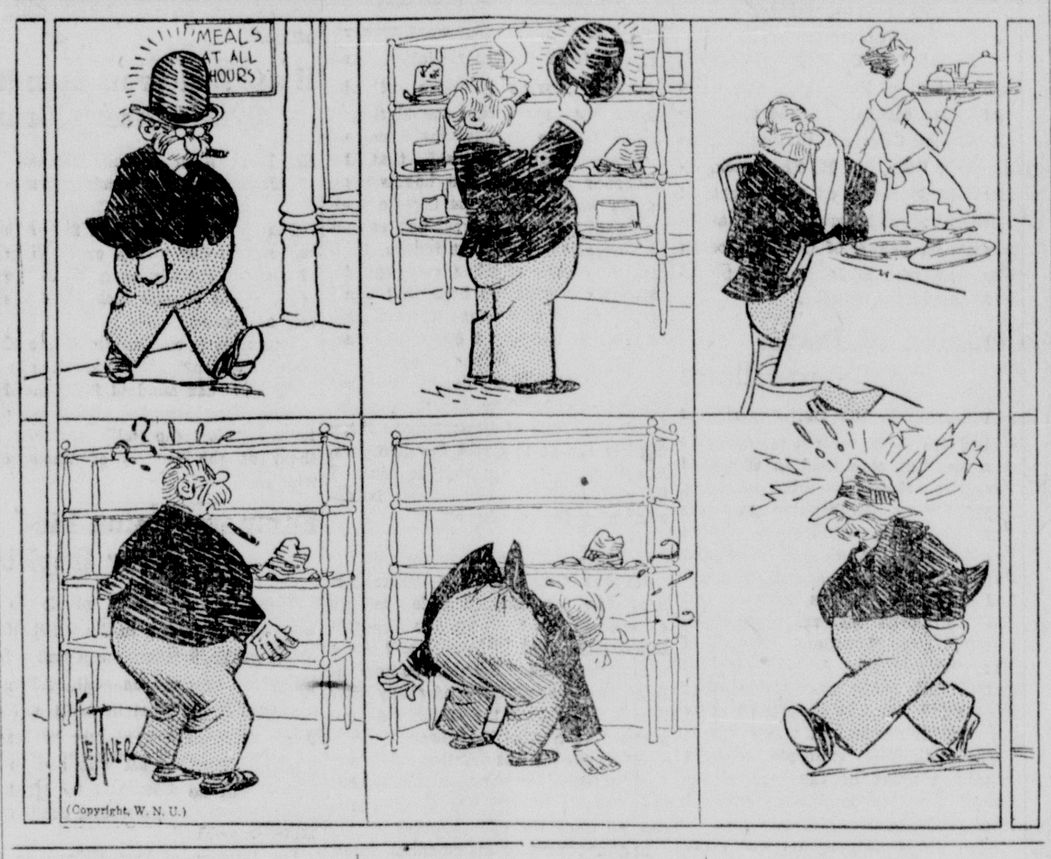
Our Pet Peeve



Harmony

The Church

The rain prevented any services both morning and evening last Sunday. Regular services will be held next Sunday and in the morning the quarterly Missionary Rally Day program will be given in the Sunday school.

School

The first meeting of our literary society was a success. The program was well rendered and well received. The address following the program of M. E. Ford of Maryville on the work of the Con. Con. of which he was a member was listened to with interest. The meeting was open to all and nearly a hundred were in attendance.

The schools of the district are planning to give a program soon in commemoration of Farnces Willard Day. Announcement will be made a little later.

Junior Latin now have their texts and practically all books have now been received.

Our new furnace has been installed and has been given a preliminary work out.

Ten new desks have been received. to take care of the increased seating needs. Three will remain at the High School, the remaining ones being distributed among the different wards.

The condition of Perry Sapp is not encouraging; he is at home getting ready for an operation. It is thought that it will be necessary to scrape the diseased portion of the bone to induce a healtny growth. We hope he may be back in school soon.

Prin. Harold S. Sawyers represented our school at a conference of school men at Maryville last Saturday. An outdoor Basket Ball League was formed and Mr. Sawyers is one of the members of the board appointed to arrange the schedule of games. We play our first game Sept. 28, but as yet do not know who or where we play. This is to be determined at a later conference.

The enrollment in the different wards shows a very gratifying increase, as will as that of the High School. Ward 6, Casteel, Ruth Green 16; ward 2, Pioneer, L. L. King 17; ward 3, Champaign, Mrs. Estella Porter, 21; ward 4, Excelsior, Russel Lewis 21; ward 5, Common Sense, Halley Ford 22. Added to the High School enrollment of 27 this give us a total of 125 for the opening of the term.

There were bearing-down pains in my back and sides and I felt exhausted at times and could not rest well at night. After using a few boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills I was greatly relieved, and my health began to pick up."

(Statement given October 2, 1912.)

HELP FOR GIRLS WHO WORK

Mrs. Lodic Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Helped Her

Tyrone, Pa.—"A friend told my husband how Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound had helped his wife, so my husband bought me a bottle because I was so run-down, had a nervous weakness, no strength in my body and pains in my left side so bad that I could hardly do my work. Before I was married I used to work in the factory, and I had pains just the same then as I have had since I have done my housework. I would not be without a bottle in the house now. It has stopped the pains all right and I have found out that it is a wonderful body builder, as it has made me well and strong. It is going to be the 'old reliable' with me hereafter, and I am always willing to tell other women how it has helped me. You can use this letter as you wish as I can honestly say that my words are true."—Mrs. M. LODIC, R.F.D. No. 4, Box 40, Tyrone, Pa.

Reunion of Derks Family in Illinois

A reunion of the Derks family, of which Mrs. J. E. Melvin of Maryville is a member, was held in Glenwood Park at Macomb, Ill., Saturday, September 9. Eighty-five relatives from Macomb, Monmouth, Swan Creek, Sciota, Blandinsville, LaHarpe, Carthage, Hamilton and Farris, Ill., and six visitors were in the party. Of the ten Derks sisters, eight were present, Mrs. Elizabeth Melvin of Maryville and Mrs. Jessie Jenson of Quincy, Ill., being unable to attend the reunion. It was decided to make the reunion an annual affair.

After dinner a program was given as follows:

Short talk by Eldon Gills.

Song, "Blest Be The Tie."

Reading, Zola Fargusson.

Song, "Shall e Gather at the River," by the sisters.

Recitation, Don Argenbright.

Reading, Mrs. Mary Melvin.

Going to Sunday School, Carl Vicering.

Poem, Ruth Melvin.

Duet, Ina Hanson and Doris Derks.

A historical sketch and the reunion selection were written by one of the sisters and read by Eldon Gills.

All the sisters but two are living in McDonough, Warren and Hancock counties, Ill. One sister is in Quincy and one in Maryville, Mo. The son's families are more widely scattered. Of the relatives who could not be present were Bess Melvin, Eva Burkhart, Raymond and Eunice Derks, Mae Melvin, Ora Goff, Ruby Melvin, Virgil Catlin, Bonnie Head and Ward Harris."

LEGISLATURE WILL MEET WEDNESDAY

held early today when word was received from Governor Walton and Speaker Murray Gibbons of the House that they were considering a session call to consider the situation.

"I am reliably informed that the Governor has seen the handwriting on the wall," McBee said. "He realizes that the call is legal and cannot be forstalled. For that reason, in a last desperate effort, a call was decided upon with the hope that some of the legislators might be won over to him, by showing a desire to remedy the situation he has created.

"The Governor has decided to clear the capitol building for the legislature. The folly of attempting to carry out his threat to arrest the members, has been made apparent to him. I do not anticipate any trouble in assemblying the members."

Reed Criticises Walton

Kansas City, Sept. 20—Characterizing the situation in Oklahoma as an example of the need for constitutional safeguard in federal and state administrations, Senator James A. Reed of Missouri declared today that it was clear that the Oklahoma executive had abused his power.

While he did not mention Governor Walton directly, Senator Reed said that "power granted for good causes can be used for bad purposes."

In the course of his remarks, Reed bitterly assailed the Ku Klux Klan, which Walton is endeavoring to drive from Oklahoma.

"The Klan defames the American flag and insults every one of the forty-eight stars through its actions," Reed continued.

"Members of the judiciary should be compelled to answer to the people at certain periods for their conduct in office. The only mistake the framers of our Constitution made was in allowing the judiciary life tenure of office."

Committee Named to Get Motorists' Opinion

Regards Raising $2,000,000 To Assure Completion Of State Road 4 Years Earlier

In furtherance of the proposal by Theodore Gary, chairman of the Missouri State Highway Commission, to raise approximately $2,000,000 annually to assure completion of the state road system four years sooner than contemplated, Roy F. Britton, president of the Automobile Club of Missouri, has named the following committee to ascertain the sentiment of motorists through the state:

In the attempt to obtain good roads for Missouri by 1928, co-operation has been asked of the Automobile Dealers of Kansas City, the Kansas City Good Roads Association; the Automobile Club of St. Joseph, the Automobile Accessory Association of St. Louis and the St. Louis Team and Truck Owners Association. A pledge to support the movement already has been given by the Automobile Dealers Association of St. Louis.

Headquarters of the Automobile Club of Missouri reports that the public's reaction to the plan has been very gratifying. Motorists, recognizing the fact that the saving on tires and car depreciation will more than pay the bill, have expressed a willingness to pay a slightly increased amount in licenes fee or gasoline tax.
